WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

THE SUPREME COURT—TRIAL OF JEFF DAVIS AND THE TEST OATH—THE SOUTHERN STATES.

It is known that the Justices of the Supreme Court have been conferring in relation to the trial of Jefferson Davis for some time, and there is not much doubt that they, or a portion of them, inspired the bill of Mr. Clarke, in the Senate. The indications are very strong that the court has decided adversely to the test oath of 1862, but the reasons why a promulgation to that effect is not now made are obvious.

The members elect to Congress from the Southwest are on the point of returning home. It is due to truth to state that they have had little hope from the start.

The era of constrained good feelings between radical and conservative politicians is near its end, unless the former soon lower their crest.—As things are; it is thought that even Tennessee members cannot be admitted, though Mr. Colfax has said that he should take the floor to advocate their right to seats. The flood of experimental legislation of a mere partizan nature that the radical leaders are seeking to engraft upon the fundamental law, not less than their new irrational idea of general negro suffrage, is alarming to moderate minded men even in Congress. They are raising their incongruous fabric so high that before long it will tumble into undistinguished ruin.

MARRIAGE OF MRS. DOUGLAS.

Last evening (Tuesday, 23d,) Mrs. Adele C. Douglas was united in matrimony with Brevet Brigadier-General Robert Williams, U. S. A.

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride, on New Jersey avenue, Douglas Place.—The ceremony was performed by Reverend Father Lynch, assisted by Reverend Father McGuire, of Georgetown College.

Among the invited guests were Hon. E. M. Stanton and lady, Lieutenant General Grant and lady, Senator Foster and lady, General Townsend and lady, Generals Ingalls and Kenton, Colonel Burton, Miss Jennie Cameron, of Pennsylvania, Hon. Thos. A. Scott and lady, of Philadelphia, and several relatives of the bride.

The dress of the bride was made of white corded silk, (high in the neck,) and a rich thulle veil.

The bridegroom appeared in full military uniform.

The rooms were elegantly decorated with flowers, and the display of diamonds, pearls, and splendid dresses of the ladies, presented a sight at once charming and interesting to the spectator.

THE TRIAL OF SEMMES.

There is a sudden hitch in the arrangements for the trial of Semmes, and a doubt is now expressed whether he will be summoned to appear before a court martial. Judge Hughes, his leading counsel, has remonstrated against this mode of trial, as unjust and wrong in view of the circumstances attending the parole of his client, and the expression of the President, not long since, that he should oppose all such trials in the future. If I am correctly informed, the Judge, who is a personal friend of the President, has appealed to him directly with reference to the case, and report says the postponement just announced is the result of said appeal.

THE TEST OATH IN THE SUPREME COURT.

I hear it stated, in a quarter usually well informed, that a majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court have united in declaring the test oath of Congress to be unconstitutional.—We had a rumor last week that the Court was a "tie," but the source of that information was not so reliable as in the present instance.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The Constitutional Amendment reported by the Joint Committee on Reconstruction was adopted in committee with but one dissenting voice. There will be an important, and perhaps warm debate upon the proposition, but the belief is that it will pass, when, rumor says, a report will be made from the committee in favor of the admission of the restored States as soon as they (the States) have likewise adopted the amendment. The West favors the amendment, and will give it a heavy majority.

"Iota," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes as follows:

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23, 1866.

The joint committee on reconstruction have leave to report from time to time, and they have made their first report, which proposes an amendment, but is really a subversion of the constitution. It will be noticed that this proposed amendment is not the same which has been so often noticed and commended in the republican press. It is much more revolutionary than that. The original proposition was to base representation upon the number of voters instead of the federal numbers, as fixed by the constitution.

But the present proposition is to exclude from the basis of representation all the free blacks in a State, unless the whole number of them be endowed with the right of suffrage. Thus, if Maryland gave the right of suffrage to one half of her blacks, she would gain nothing under this scheme, for all the negroes in the State would still be excluded from the basis. Under the former scheme, she would be entitled to be credited with the one-half. So she would lose one representative under this plan, even if she gave the right of suffrage to one-half the negroes in the State. The House debate on reconstruction will be prolonged for weeks. Mr. J. L. Dawson had the floor to-day, and spoke very ably on the conservative side.

Mr. Trumbull's bill to enlarge the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau is likely to pass without amendment. The patronage which it affords will carry it through Congress. The bill granting the sea-island cotton lands to the negroes, either in fee simple or for three years, will pass, but will be vetoed. The negroes concerned are well advised on the subject. A gentleman from that region, now here, reports that the negroes say, that they depend on Congress. They will make no contracts for plantation work, because they depend on the government for support.

WITHDRAWAL OF THE FRENCH FROM MEXICO—THE REPORT REPEATED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—A special despatch from Washington to the World says there seems to be no doubt that, by the last steamer from Europe, the State Department received positive information from Paris that the French troops will be withdrawn within a stated early period.

The Herald's special despatch from Washington says the French Minister has applied to the State Department for information regarding the recent capture from the Imperialists of Bagdad, on the Rio Grande, but as no official dispatches with reference to the affair have been received, he cannot be gratified.

Gen. Sheridan has been instructed from Washington to investigate the affair, and punish any United States soldier that may have been engaged in it.

ALL HONOR TO NEW JERSEY.—In his valedictory, forming the conclusion of his last annual message, Governor Parker, of New Jersey, makes the following proud boast:

"While every effort has been put forth to meet the calls of the constitutional authorities for men and money to suppress the rebellion against the Government of the United States, not a single right of the State of New Jersey has been yielded, and not one of her citizens, during my administration, has been deprived of his liberty without due process of law."

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE firm heretofore known as that of Baker, Cowper & Co. has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. The duties devolving on one of the partners as Cashier of the Bank of Cape Fear, and the removal of the other to Norfolk (his residence before the war) for the purpose of practicing law, have caused this dissolution. The business will be continued by Mr Pulaski Cowper and Mr. James A. Moore, late Teller of the Bank of Cape Fear, under the name and style of Cowper & Moore, who will settle up the business of Baker, Cowper & Co.

BONE MANURE.

WARRANTED GENUINE.

BEING MADE OF THE BEST MATERIAL AND in the most approved manner, it is recommended to the public as superior to any other in the market. All who have used it speak of it in the highest terms of praise, and those engaged in its manufacture will continue their best endeavors to advance the high reputation which it has acquired.

We guarantee the Phosphate to be well manufactured, and recommend it in preference to any other artificial manure in the market. We consider it nearly equal to the best Peruvian Guano, although furnished at half the price.

Messrs B H. Allen & Co., the well known manufacturers of agricultural implements, say of it:

"We take pleasure in stating that we have sold Etting Coe's Super Phosphate of Lime for four years. It has given universal satisfaction to our customers. We most cheerfully endorse it as an article worthy of the confidence of the public, and the purchaser may rely upon securing an article honestly and carefully manufactured.

"We would state that, after careful examination we believe this Phosphate has been improved each year since its introduction in this market, and that it will continue to maintain its present high standing. "Very respectfully,

The Freedmen.

We observe in the papers a statement, that some days ago, a Court in Sampson County, before which a colored man was brought up, for some offence or for vagrancy, was adjudged to be sold for a given time. It it is further stated that the officer there connected with the Freedmen's Bureau had arrested the Court and all concerned. There are unpleasant rumors also in regard to difficulties at Goldsboro, growing out of matters connected with the freedmen. We do not know that there is any truth in any of these statements or rumors, but we notice them, in order to repeat what we have several times suggested, in regard to the treatment of the colored people. A similar decision to the one attributed to the Court in Sampson, was made in Wilmington sometime ago, and it was promptly reversed by the order of the U. S. authorities. We are therefore surprised, after such a reversal, the thing should have been repeated.

The war freed the colored race entire who had been in slavery—the State Convention has confirmed that decision, and by a vote of the people of the State, it has been ratified. Added to this, the Legislature has adopted the amendment to the Constitution forever abolishing slavery in the United States. The emancipation of the slaves left them of course without due protection under the laws of the State. To afford them proper protection, it became the duty of Congress to provide for them, until the States adopted such laws for their protection and government, as justice and humanity and their condition as freedmen required.

This originated the Freedmen's Bureau and the adoption of such regulations as seemed necessary to accomplish this object. Since the inauguration of the Freedmen's Bureau in this State, the government of the United States does not admit the right of the State authorities to arrest or try colored persons for misdemeanors, and claims for the Freedmen's Bureau entire jurisdiction over all matters connected with the government and care of the blacks. However unpleasant or anomalous this may appear—having two governments administering and exercising authority in the same State at the same time, and however liable to a conflict of authority, yet every man of thoughtful consideration must see the necessity for the existence of this anomalous state of things, and the propriety of respecting the claims of authority, until the State shall adopt such laws for the protection and government of the blacks, as will satisfy the U. S. government, that we intend to do them justice.

We re-affirm that that is the purpose of the people of the State. It cannot, however, be expected, that under circumstances so utterly changed, and in so short a period, that every white man, woman and child, will, in all cases, act under all circumstances with the decorum and propriety which might be desired. It is, however, really wonderful that so few cases of difficulty have occurred, and it is to be attributed to the general disposition of our people to do right in the premises, and to the discretion and general good management of those connected with the Bureau. We speak of the gentlemen connected with the Bureau here. In other places, the same discretion may not have been exercised either on the part of the people or officers, which may account for the existence of difficulties more serious on this subject, than have fallen under our observation.

Moreover, it does seem to us, that the positive assurance that the U. S. Government purposes to exercise its authority through the medium of the Bureau over this question, until the State by her Legislature has fully met the case, ought to check and prevent any difficulty which might arise, seeing that this state of things is only designed to be temporary. It is wise to submit quietly to temporary inconveniences, rather than force upon ourselves greater ones by our haste and impatience.

"We observe that the Sentinel publishes the "Report of the Superintendent of Common Schools," addressed "To His Excellency, Jonathan Worth, Governor of North Carolina." Will some one inform us by what authority Mr. Wiley is Superintendent of Common Schools?"—Standard.

We do not know that we can explain the matter to the satisfaction of our cotemporary, but we will try. Mr. Wiley, though deeply interested in the Public Schools, would not hold office an hour contrary to law. The condition of the Public School interest demanded the attention of some one, and there was no one else, who was so well prepared or so strongly inclined to nurture that interest, as Mr. Wiley. Having never taken an oath to support the Confederate States, he believed that under the ordinance of the Convention, his office as Superintendent of the Public Schools of the State had not been vacated. In this opinion he was confirmed, by the opinions of B. F. Moore, Esq., Judge Reade, Judge Warren and others, whose opinions he sought. When Gov. Worth came into office, he at once recognised Mr. Wiley as the Superintendent of the Schools. It is due to Mr. Wiley to state, that he has been ready at any moment to resign or vacate the office, if there was any doubt as to his right to hold it, but all with whom he consulted, urged him not to do so, being satisfied of his being still in that office.

The Situation.

The complete occupation of the time of the Congress by the radicals, with their extraordinary propositions to amend the Constitution, and to humiliate the South, is well calculated to impress Southern people with the utter hopelessness of their cause, and the fixed purpose of that party to override all the pleas of humanity and propriety, until the Southern people, worn-out by their continued agitations, will quietly yield every thing to their rapacity, or, becoming entirely outraged by their victimizing processes, will determine to abandon the country to them and the negroes.

Indeed, were there no signs of promise upon the horizon, no hopeful indications from any other quarter, the anxieties of the Southern people for restoration would soon subside, and all concern for the future would be abandoned.

But strong as that party has hitherto been—immense as is the power which it still wields, we confess we have strong hope in the returning sense of justice and brotherhood, in the great masses of conservatism in the North.

In Andrew Johnson's magnanimity, justice and devotion to the Constitution, we have an abiding confidence, stubborn and powerful as the opposition must be to his enlightened and liberal policy. The reticence of the President of late, the prudence which he observes in his movements, and the gentle manner with which he deals with the opposition, has in some measure created uneasiness in the popular mind at the South, that he may at length give way to the pressure upon him. But we have all along rested strongly upon his good intentions and purposes, and the assurances which we receive from reliable sources, of his unabated devotion to his policy and his unswerving firmness, force us to cling to him with undeviating confidence.

The article which we published yesterday, from the Cincinnati Gazette, endorsed as it is, by the National Intelligencer, ought to relieve the fears of the timid, and to strengthen the wavering. We look forward to developements in a short period, which will set at rest all doubts as to the purposes of President Johnson, and to such substantial proofs of his devotion to the true interests of the whole country, as will rally to him, both North and South, the warmest support of the great masses.

"Our cotemporary seems to be haunted by the "strait sect." The reason is the "strait sect" of the Southern States are unconditional Union men. Our cotemporary cannot bear that. His sympathies are with those leaders who fought it out, or rather with those leaders who ran away and left the soldiers to fight it out."—Standard.

We do not believe in ghosts or hob-goblins, nor are we disturbed by "haunts" of any kind. The most striking characteristic of "strait sect" men that we wot of, is their imitation of the ultra radicals in desiring all the offices, and in their illiberality towards the masses of the Southern people. We are Union men, committed to the policy of President Johnson. We shall submit to the "powers that be" in all good conscience, but we can never give our sanction or approval to radical measures. Our cotemporary is slightly mistaken, and judges us by itself. It was the Standard whose sympathies were at first "with those leaders who fought it out," and afterwards "with those leaders who ran away and left the soldiers to fight it out." The sympathies of the Sentinel are only with the true men,—those who went into the war when it was forced upon them, and fought it out, and with those who sustained them. We are for unity, fraternity and equality among all men who are for the Union and who sustain the government,—being willing to judge people by what they are, and not by what they profess to be.

The Standard says, that the true Union men are in favor of unconditional submission to the United States government. We ask the Standard, if that class of Union men are in favor of negro suffrage? Would they vote for an amendment of the U. S. Constitution, securing universal suffrage to the blacks?

A Pastoral Letter to the Clergy of the Diocease of Alabama.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN:—In the pastoral letter which I issued to the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese upon the occasion of the closing of the Churches by the military authorities, I stated as follows:

"Should the General Council, of which the Diocese of Alabama is a component part, order any prayer in place of that which has ceased of necessity, then, from that time forth, the ordering of the Council would be decisive as the supreme law of the churches constituting said Council."

The said General Council, at its late session, in Augusta, Ga., did provide for such prayer, and recommended that said provision should have the force of law in any Diocese, whenever approved by the Bishop of the Diocesan Council" thereof.

Regarding such decision of the Council as the voice of the church, I would have immediately seconded the ruling of the Council, but for the military duress under which the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Alabama were held. So great would have been the evil of yielding to secular dictation, in matters pertaining to the supremacy of the church, that I was solicitous to avoid even the appearance of this evil.

I stated, in my pastoral of June 20th, that any attempt to dictate to the church can only serve to retard the action which, in pursuance of her obligations to God and to her own traditions, she will unquestionably take, at the proper time and in the proper manner." It has not so turned out, and the use of the prayer for the President of the United States has been, through military duress, postponed, in this Diocese, for the space of two months.

The recent revocation of the military "orders" renders it proper for me now to do what I could not properly have done before such revocation.

I do now, therefore, recommend that the ruling of the General Council in the premises have the force of law in the Diocese of Alabama; and the Clergy thereof are called upon, henceforth, to use the prayer for those in authority as it stands in the book of Common Prayer.

RICHARD H. WILMER,
Bishop of the Diocese of Alabama.
Mobile, Ala., Jan. 18, 1866.

The managers of the Boston Theatre were lately fined $14,000 by the United States authorities for making fraudulent returns. A portion of the fine was subsequently abated.

ON CALENDAR.

A bill to authorize Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in Cabarrus county, was laid on the table on its 2nd reading.

A bill to legalize the proceedings of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the State, was rejected on 2nd reading. (A bill with the same purview had already passed the Commons.)

An engrossed bill from the Senate to punish horse stealing, was put on its 2nd reading. [It provides that the thief shall receive one or more public whippings for the first offence, and be hung for the second, without benefit of clergy.] The Judiciary Committee reported this morning adversely to its passage.

Mr. Jenkins of Warren, moved to amend the bill by making the first offence a capital felony.

Messrs. Manly, McKay, Hutchison, Faircloth and Smith of Hertford, opposed the amendment.

Mr. Hutchinson said that it was very natural that a community of farmers should be exasperated by this crime, and many now thought themselves, if called upon, ready to punish it with death, but whether as jurors under the solemnities of an oath in a Court of Justice, they would decide that the larceny of a horse, worth it might be said $25, was of equal enormity with taking the life of a fellow-being, seemed to him very doubtful. He thought all thieves should be confined to hard labor.

Messrs. Jenkins of Warren, and Smith of Cumberland, urged its adoption.

The question recuring, the yeas and nays were ordered, and the amendment was rejected as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Barnett, Black, Blair, Bryson, Burton, Carson, Coates, Dunn, Faircloth, of Greene, Ferrell, Foster, Hawes, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jenkins, of Warren, Jones, Judkins, Kenan, Lucas, Matthews, McAden, Moore, of Alamance, Niven, Page, Russell, Shaw, Simmons, Smith, of Columbus, Smith, of Cumberland, Waugh, Williams—30.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Arrington, Ashworth, Baxter, Beasley, Blackmer, Blythe, Bonner, Burgess, Caldwell, Cameron, Candler, Chadwick-Cox, Craige, Crawford, Dalby, Dargan, Davis, of Carteret, Davis, of Halifax, Faircloth, of Wayne, Farrow, Flythe, Furr, Gaines, Garland, Gidney, Hamilton, Harper, Henry, Hodnett, Holderby, Hoke, Holmes, Horton, Houston, Hutchison, Hyman, Jenkins, of Granville, Joyner, Kinney, Lee, of Gates, Logan, Lucas, Luke, Lyon, Manly, Marler, McDonald, McEachen, McGuire, McIntosh, McKay, McNair, Melson, Moore, of Martin, Mott, Murrill, Nicks, Newsum, Paschall, Potter, Rayner, Rosebro, Smith, of Guilford, Smith, of Hertford, Stilley, Scoggin, Teague, Trull, Wheeler, Wilson, Yellowley, York—73.

The question recurring on the passage of the bill 2nd its reading, Mr. Moore of Martin, moved to lay it on the table, which was not agreed to.

The bill then passed its 2nd reading.

A bill to make horse-stealing a felony punishable with death—(making the first offence capital,) was laid on the table, as also "a bill to continue in force certain acts for the relief of persons who may suffer from the burning of the records for the county of Hertford.

Mr. Ashworth, (by leave,) introduced "a bill to more effectually punish vagrancy. Referred to the committee on Freedmen.

The following bills, from the Senate, had their first reading, viz: a bill to attach the county of Mitchell to the eighth Judicial Circuit, and "a bill to continue in office Clerks and Masters in Equity, until their successors are appointed.

The House then adjourned.

Lord Palmerston's will shows him to have died worth $600,000, nearly all of which he leaves to his widow and upon her death it goes to her son, who is to assume the name of Temple. His letters and papers he also leaves to his wife.

The Emperor of Austria, who is winning hearts in Hungary, by his frank manner and liberal principles, is expected to make his coronation unusually brilliant and memorable, by passing an act of amnesty which will allow every political exile to return to Hungary. It is said that Kossuth's name will head the list.

There is no less than eighteen Physicians and fifteen Lawyers, now practicing their different professions in this town. Surely this being the case we will not die for want of Medical attention, and while we live we certainly will not lose the little property we have, for the want of counsel to plead our cause.—*Wil. LIFE INSURANCE NOTICE.

THE old and well established

Ætna Company, of Hartford,

Offers superior inducements to all who wish to provide for family or friends.

All losses are promptly paid. No case of litigation has ever occurred with this Company. With assets of $2,300,000, it offers to receive one half of the premium in a note and half in cash, and, after the second year, to credit each customer with the dividends of the Company, which are now 50 per cent. With a small outlay, $50 0, or $10,000 or $2,000, may be secured to the family after their earthly providers are taken away. What father or husband would not feel thankful on his dying couch, that he had availed himself of every proper means to place those nearest and dearest to him, above the pechings of want and a life of dependence upon friends or charity? 888-9 policies have been issued from the office ending Jan. 15 1866. The total income for the year 1865 was $1,683 339 57; total disbursements $527 8 5 24, leaving a balance to surplus fund of $1,155 2 4 33.

In Raleigh, a large number have liberally responded and promptly acted in this matter; yet many delay, and may wait until it is too late. A man in this city lately left his place of business for his evening meal, well and healthy, but never recalled that he was except as he was carried there to die. Had that man taken the advice of the Agent, he might have left $5,000 to minister to the necessities of a sorrowing family. Delays are dangerous procrastination destructive. But one says "I only had confidence in the Company that it would pay, I would insure." Well, it never has failed to pay and to-day is more responsible than ever before. It is patronized by some of the most sagacious minds in the land—men competent to detect and expose any deception if it existed.

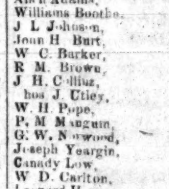
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,



Are the most perfect purgative which we are able to produce, or which we think has ever yet been made by any body. Their effects have abundantly shown to the community how much they excel the ordinary medicines in use. They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart a healthy tone with strength to the whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated, they are pleasant to take; and, being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief, were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character, as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliabilities of our remedies, while others have sent us the assurance of their conviction that our Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of our afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis our American Almanac, containing directions for the use, and certificates of their cures, of the following complaints:

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from foul stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Action of the bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, All Diseases which require an evacuant medicine. They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Dropsies, Partial Blindness Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with other preparations which they make more profit on. Demand AYER'S and take no other. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

OUR most momentous, arduous struggle having resulted in the triumph of American Nationality, the utter discomfiture and overthrow of Secession and Slavery The Tribune, profoundly rejoicing in this result, will labor to conserve the legitimate fruits of this grand, benignant victory by rendering Liberty and Opportunity the common heritage of the whole American People now and evermore.

Discountenancing all unmanly exultation over, or needless infliction of pain or privation on, the upholders of the lost cause, it will insist on the earliest possible restoration of the Southern States to their former power and influence in our Union, on the basis of All Rights for All their People.

It will labor for the diffusion of Common School Education, Manufactures, the Useful Arts, &c., &c., throughout the sections hitherto devoid of them, believing that every good end will thereby be subserved and the interest of every useful and worthy class promoted.

It will urge the Protection of Home Industry by discriminating duties on Foreign Products imported, with a view to drawing hither the most capable and skilful artisans of Europe, and the naturalizing on our soil of many branches of production hitherto all but confined to the Old World, while it would strengthen and extend those which have already a foothold among us.

It will give careful attention to progress and improvement in Agriculture, doing its best at once to bring market to the doors of our farmers, and teach them how to make the most of the opportunities thus afforded them.

It will devote constant attention to Markets especially for Agricultural Products, with intent to serve both producer and consumer from being victimized by the speculator and forestaller.

And, giving fair scope to Current Literature, to the proceedings of Congress, and to the general News of the Day, it hopes to retain its old patrons, and attract many new to bear them company.

We rarely employ traveling agents, as so many impostors are habitually prowling in the assumed capacity of solicitors for journals. We prefer that our subscribers shall pay their money to persons they know, and of whose integrity they are assured. Any friend who believes he will do good by increasing the circulation of The Tribune, is authorized to solicit and receive subscriptions. Specimen copies will be promptly sent with all charge to those requiring them, and we trust many friends will be moved to ask their neighbors and acquaintances to join in making up their clubs.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Saturday, January 27, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Westbrook & Albright, the well known Dealers in Fruit and Ornamental trees, at Greensboro,' announce their usual choice varieties.

We invite special attention to the card of A. A. Willard, wholesale dealer in Groceries and General Merchandize, Wilmington. Mr. W. deserves all the patronage to which energy, enterprise and reliability are entitled.

The Prospectus of the New York Tribune, for the current year, appears to-day. While we have little sympathy with the sentiments of this journal upon most subjects, we can bear cheerful testimony to the ability with which it is conducted. Its large circulation makes it a capital advertising medium.

Messrs. Williams & Haywood and P. F. Pescud announce that popular remedy, "Ayers' Cathartic Pills."

W. H. Crow, Agent of the Ætna Insurance Co., presents the most attractive inducements to life-insurers. His exhibit of the operations of the Company is impressive and striking.

J. M. Towle's announces another of his attractive Auction sales for this morning.

Moffit, Bro. & Co., Wilmington, General Commission Merchants, will attend to all business entrusted to them.

Mrs. E. T. McRae, of Suffolk, Va., desires a situation as teacher in a private family.

Notice is given of intention to ask the Legislature for an extension of the corporate limits of Swansboro, Onslow County.

There will be a meeting of the Stockholders of the Chatham R. R. Co., on the 1st proximo.

Mrs. Fentress advertises comfortable board and lodging for a few more gentlemen.

T. T. Fentress will receive Norfolk Oysters daily and retail them at the moderate price of $2 per gallon. We are indebted to our young friend for a liberal supply. They are excellent in flavor, and have the genuine Lynn Haven taste.

The Provisional Sheriff of Wake, calls a meeting of the new magistrates on the 3rd prox.

An important sale of the cattle, stock, crops, &c., of the Austin estate, is announced for the 31st inst.

Henry Lilly offers the Fayetteville Hotel for rent—a fine chance for an investment.

The Standard of yesterday announced that Gov. Holden has resumed the control of the editorial conduct of that paper. The business is conducted in the name of W. W. Holden and Son.

The subscribers to the Academy, (to be erected near the Methodist church,) are requested to meet the trustees of said church, at 4 o'clock P. M., this Saturday, in the Insurance office over D. C. Murray's store.

PENSION AGENCY.—We observe that Dr. J. W. Page has established a pension agency in this city. When the fact was stated by a cotemporary, a few days ago, we supposed it must be a mistake, and so stated.

OYSTERS.—We are indebted to a valued friend in Wilmington, for a barrel of the finest oysters in the shell, we have seen for five years. The generous donor has our warmest thanks. They remind us of Old North River or Nansemond.

FREIGHTS.—We are certainly behind the times, or rather have so little use for Railroads and Express Companies, that we supposed with two Express Companies, freights were becoming bearable. Our eyes were stretched the other day, when an Express Collector handed us a bill of $6 for bringing a barrel weighing 215 lbs. from Wilmington!! Hereafter we advise our friends, when they have freight for us, to wait for the road wagon. The freight on a barrel of flour from Baltimore to Petersburg, we learn, by steamer, is 10 cts.—from Wilmington to Raleigh, it is $6!!

WHO'D PAY FOR YE?—A Yorkshire farmer called at the house of a lawyer to consult him professionally.

"Is t' squeer at home?" he inquired of the lawyer's lady, who opened the door to his summons.

He was answered negatively. Disappointment shone in his face; but after a moment's consideration a thought relieved him.

"Mebby yourself can gi' me the necessary information, as well as t' squeer, seen as ye're his wife?"

The kind lady readily promised to do so, if, on learning the nature of his difficulty, she found it in her power; and the other proceeded to state the case as follows:

"Spoaze ye wur an old white mear, and I should borrow ye to gwang to mill, with grist on yer back, and we should get no farder than Sair Hill when all at once ye should back up, and rear up, and pitch up, and kneel down backward, and break yer dearned old neck, who'd pay for ye? Not I, dearn me if I would."

The lady smilingly told him, as she closed the door, that as he had himself passed sentence on the case, advice would be entirely superfluous.

SMALL POX.—Two cases of small pox have appeared in the negro college in this town. The patients are pupils in that institution of learning. We have not learned whether the exercises of the school will be temporarily suspended or not. But, perhaps, parents at a distance would do well not to send their daughters here for a few weeks, at least, not until the "bureau" becomes thoroughly disinfected. Measles and such like deceases have been very prevalent among the negroes of Greensboro; but the above cases are the first of small pox which has appeared amongst them.—Greensboro Patriot.

At the time of Stephen A. Douglas' decease his estate was so encumbered that it was believed that there would be nothing left for his family. During the war, however, the price of real estate in Chicago, where his property was located, appreciated so in value that its sale has paid all the debts, and left his family a handsome competence.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.

SENATE.—The Senate considered the Joint resolution for the appointment of Provisional Governors in the Southern States.

Howe, of Wisconsin, who introduced the bill, made a speech in favor of it.

HOUSE.—The House resumed the consideration of the proposed Constitutional amendment relative to basis of representation.

Harding, of Kentucky, and Wright, of New Jersey, made speeches in favor of the admission of Southern members. They could see no reason for the Constitutional amendment. It was designed by the Radicals as a party measure to secure the suffrage of negroes. The House will vote on the question on Tuesday.

Tennessee and Kentucky Legislatures.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.

The Tennessee Senate, on yesterday, concurred in the House amendment granting the right to testify to negroes.

The Senate of the Kentucky Legislature has postponed the election of U. S. Senators, and extended the present session. It has, also, rejected the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery, and declared the action, already taken by the Legislature, final.

Chilian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, January 26.

The Chilian Government has made overtures to W. H. Webb, for the purchase of the Ram "Dunderburg." It is said that he will dispose of her, with the consent of the Government, by a six month's contract, the vessel to belong to him until the whole purchase money is paid.

From the Rio Grande.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25.

Gen. Crawford has not gone to Washington, as reported, but is now incarcerated in Fort Jackson by order of Gen. Sheridan. Many tokens of the Bagdad affair are reported to have been found among his papers.

The Emperor of Brazil has appointed a "Board of Health" to investigate what proprietary remedies should be admitted into the country and what excluded. After some months session they have reported condemning them all except Dr. J. C. AYER & Co.'s preparations. Three of those they recommended the Emperor to admit for the benefit of the public health while they hold the fourth, Cherry Pectoral, under advisement for further information respecting one of its ingredients—morphine, which while so extensively employed and so highly esteemed as a remedy in this country, is scarcely known in that. Of all the other medicines before them, the Imperial commission say, no one of them merits any favor whatever, or protection from this Government, as they contain nothing new nor any specific virtues not fully known and used by our own physicians.' The Imperial Government has accordingly prohibited them all from admission through the custom house, except the remedies of our distinguished countrymen above mentioned—a discrimination by their learned men, very like that to which experience has led the American people.—Boston Herald.

If You are threatened with Pneumonia, read the following from Capt. W. P. Davis, of Petersburg, Virginia:

"Sympathy for the sufferings prompts me to certify that my servant man was suffering in the last stage of pneumonia throwing up matter and blood in large quantities; his case was considered hopeless, so much so that there was no medical prescription used for his recovery; I regarded him as good as dead. Hearing of the great cures made by the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS, I thought that I would try an experiment on him; without any hope of success however. I gave the Pills in large doses; in a short time, to my great surprise, there was a change for the better. I continued giving them to him until he became a perfectly sound man. He is now attending to his work with as much strength and vigor as he ever did. With his case, and what I have seen and heard of the good effects of these Pills, I do most earnestly recommend them as the best family medicine I have ever seen or used."

HAMPSHIRE COAL.

CARGO OF 275 TONS HAMPSHIRE COAL DAILY expected from Baltimore.

This coal is bituminous, and perhaps the best coal known for steam purposes whether for locomotives or steamboats. It is used almost exclusively by Northern railroad companies and the Cunard Steamers. It is also represented as the best blacksmith's coal in the country and is very extensively used in iron works for forging, etc. It is soft and friable, the fine coal being as good for use as the lump.

The attention of railroad companies, iron works and machine shops, is particularly invited to the importance of a trial of this coal.

The undersigned having been appointed agent for the Hampshire and Baltimore Coal Company, will be prepared to furnish any quantity required, at a reasonable price.

PROSPECTUS

COSMOPOLITE.

ON THE FIRST OF JANUARY WE WILL commence the publication, in the City of Baltimore, of a monthly

Literary Magazine.

There is no publication of this character now issued South of New York City, and the closing of the war has left a large portion of the people of the country without a literary representative.

The COSMOPOLITE will be devoted to

Literature, Art, Reviews, Scientific Papers and General Reading, and we shall number among its contributors some of the first literary men of the South, with others from the North and from London and Paris.

All matter not original will be carefully selected from the newest and best of the English, French and German publications; and its Editors will spare no effort or expense to make it rank with the VERY FIRST Magazines of the country.

As its name imports we have established the COSMOPOLITE upon a sectional basis. We hope to make it the organ of general literature alone; and will be unpolluced by any party or clique whatever.

It will be mailed to subscribers in any part of the country upon receipt of the following

Subscription:

Single Copies, for one year,	$4 00
Five Copies for one year,	8 00
Ten Copies for one year,	33 00

The COSMOPOLITE will be generally distributed among the Merchants and Planters of the South, and we will add, for their information, a few advertisements at moderate rates.

Liberal deductions will be made to booksellers and newsdealers.

Newspapers publishing this prospectus and sending a marked copy to the undersigned, will receive a copy of the magazine edite.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of

The North Carolina Presbyterian

will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Wednesday, the 2nd of January next.

Confidently relying on the hearty support which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains or expense in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise, has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the Church, also, partake of the progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the church to the importance and necessity of work; of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not, alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; by contributions from the rich stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause, for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all we hope for on earth.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

The Snow.

At the request of ——, of our lady readers we republish this beautiful poetic waif. Since the publication of The Bridge of Sighs, by Hood, we have seen nothing equal to it in point of smooth versification, flowing rhythm and touching pathos. The plaintive wail of woman's lost honor will bring tears to every sensitive breast. The author and subject of the piece are said to be from this city.—N. Y. News.

Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow,
Filling the sky and earth below;
Over the housetops, over the street,
Over the heads of the people you meet.
Dancing,
Flirting.
Skimming along;
Beautiful snow! it can do no wrong,
Flying to kiss a fair lady's cheek,
Clinging to lips in a frolicsome freak,
Beautiful snow from the Heaven above,
Pure as an angel, gentle as love!

Oh! the snow, the beautiful snow,
How the flakes gather and laugh as they go
Whirling about in the maddening fun,
It plays in its glee with every one.
Chasing,
Laughing,
Hurrying by;
It lights on the face and it sparkles the eye!
And even the dogs, with a bark and a bound,
Snap at the crystals that eddy around!
The town is alive, and its heart in a glow,
To welcome the coming of beautiful snow!

How wild the crowd goes swaying along,
Hailing each other with humor and song!
How the gay sledges, like meteors, flash by,
Bright for the moment, then lost to the eye;
Ringing,
Swinging,
Dashing they go,
Over the crust of the beautiful snow;
Snow so pure when it falls from the sky,
To be trampled in mud by the crowd rushing by,
To be trampled and tracked by the thousands of feet,
Till it blends with the filth in the horrible street.

Once I was pure as the snow—but I fell!
Fell like the snow-flakes from heaven to hell;
Fell to be trampled as filth of the street;
Fell to be scoffed, to be spit on and beat;
Pleading,
Cursing,
Dreading to die,
Selling my soul to whoever would buy,
Dealing in shame for a morsel of bread,
Hating the living and fearing the dead;
Merciful God! have I fallen so low?
And yet I was once like the beautiful snow.

Once I was fair as the beautiful snow,
With an eye like its crystal, a heart like its glow
Once I was loved for my innocent grace—
Flattered and sought for the charms of my face!
Father,
Mother,
Sisters, all.
God, and myself, I have lost by my fall;
The veriest wretch that goes shivering by,
Will take a wide sweep, lest I wander too nigh;
For all that is on or above me, I know,
There is nothing that's pure as the beautiful snow.

How strange it should be that this beautiful snow
Should fall on a sinner with no where to go!
How strange it should be, when the night comes again,
If the snow and the ice struck my desperate brain,
Fainting,
Freezing,
Dying alone,
Too wicked for prayer, too weak for a moan,
To be heard in the streets of the crazy town,
Gone mad in the joy of the snow coming down,
To be, and to die in my terrible woe,
With a bed and a shroud of the beautiful snow.

The Career of a Female Robber in Mexico.

A woman, named Feliciana Vegas, was sentenced to death at Taipa. The Mexican Times, edited by ex-Governor Allen, of Louisiana, says:

The career of crime which at last lends this woman to the scaffold, is so extraordinary as to excite the attention of the entire press of this city. She was the mistress of Gonzalez, a confectioner, and soon after the arrival of a detachment of French troops at Jalapa, in conjunction with him, mixed poison in the food of the soldiers, and killed ten of them.

Gonzalez was soon after arrested, tried and executed for the crime. Feliciana, suspecting who had denounced Gonzalez to the authorities dressed herself in men's clothes, enticed him beyond the limits of the city, and killed him; but before doing so she forced him to kneel at her feet, and opened her bosom, exposed her sex, and claimed to be the better man of the two.—This crime she confessed at the time of her trial, it being unknown previously.

It would take up too much space to tell the many crimes which have been committed by this woman, and we pass to the last, and the one for which she has been condemned—which was the robbery of four thousand dollars in gold, and the jewelry of Mr. Acosto, on the night of the 15th of August last. This family had recently moved in the house, and Feliciana was employed as a domestic.

Public curiosity was much excited to see Feliciana, and the court room and the streets were crowded with people. She was cool and collected, and declined to sit down when brought before the court, but remained standing, without perceptible emotion, except the occasional quiver of the lips in answer to a question. Her voice was low and perfectly intelligible.

Upon being asked if she knew with what offence she was charged she replied, "I suppose for that on the table." On the table was the stolen jewelry. On being asked how she came by it, she replied that Flores had given it to her. "With what object did he give it you?" was asked. She answered that she might keep silent as to various crimes which she knew had been committed by him. The court sentenced her to die, and she listened to the sentence without the slightest emotion.

GENUINE ELOQUENCE.—There are no people in the world with whom eloquence is so universal as with the Irish. When Leigh Ritchie was travelling in Ireland, he passed a man who was a painful spectacle of pallor, squalor, and raggedness. His heart smote him, and he turned back.

"If you are in want," said Ritchie, "why don't you beg?"

"Really, it's begging, I am, your honor."

"You didn't say a word."

"Of course not, yer honor, but see how the skin is sparkling through the holes in my trowsers! and the bones cryin' out through my skin! Look at me sunken cheeks, and the famine that's staring in me eyes! Man alive, isn't it begging I am with a thousand tongues!"

CIRCULAR.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The undersigned has now ready for the press a volume the result of the incubrations of many years, entitled a "Short Treatise on Chronology in general, and especially on Classical Chronology." The work is not intended to be a chronological chart, nor yet a collection of dates and synchronistic tables. The author's aim has been to prepare a "Horn Book" of Chronology, containing the leading principles, laws and facts of that science.

The FIRST part treats of measuring time and adjusting its various divisions; the SECOND of fixing dates of historical events and arranging them in order; and the THIRD, of miscellaneous matters important to the chronologist.

UNDER THE FIRST DIVISION are discussed the day, the week, the month, the year and certain cycles used in computing the civil calendar and preparing the Almanac; the origin, history, nature, character, and various sub-divisions of each, especially among the ancients.

UNDER THE SECOND DIVISION the methods of ascertaining the dates or the time when they occurred; the actual dates of some important eras whose epochs are disputed; the most important epochs and eras which have been employed at different times and by different nations, including those which are still in use; and the actual dates of the most prominent events in classical chronology.

UNDER THE THIRD AND LAST DIVISION are considered the epochs and eras of less importance; a sketch of the chronology of India and of China; the principles of the art of mnemotechyny as applied to dates, and the different systems of that art which have been propounded.

The author believes that a work successfully executed upon this plan, though it may not contain very much that is new, cannot but be useful and profitable, not only to the reading public, but also to the youth of our country, in the acquisition of classical and historical learning: and HISTORY will be THE STUDY of this age; it must always be the study of thoughtful men in times of revolution and great political changes, such as our country is at present undergoing.

The contributions of North Carolina, and of the Southern States of the Union generally, to American literature, have heretofore been few, and for the most part, worthless. A few works of fiction and some fugitive poems include our past efforts; and with the excellent Latin Grammar, and the edition of Cæsar's Commentaries, prepared for the press by Col. Bingham—works the very best of their character which have ever fallen under our observation, and which, under more favorable circumstances, will yet win for their author that high reputation in his profession which he merits—our contributions to USEFUL LITERATURE are of the very humblest character. Under such circumstances this book is, with some confidence, presented for public patronage.

The author proposes to publish by subscription. The cost of publication will be fifteen hundred dollars or more. The book contains about two hundred and fifty 12 mo. pages. It will be brought out in the best style of one of our best American publishers, as to type, paper and binding. The cost of single copies delivered will be $2.50.

Persons desiring to subscribe can communicate with the undersigned at Raleigh, but subscription lists will be opened at various places of business in Raleigh and other towns in the State. Subscriptions will be required in cash as essential to the success of the enterprise. Editors who will give this Circular a few insertions and forward a copy of their papers containing it to the author, will be furnished with a copy of the book.

The volume will be placed in the hands of the publisher as soon as the author's success is at all assured, and will be issued to subscribers a few weeks thereafter.

Desirable Farm for Sale.

THE PLANTATION SITUATED ABOUT TWO and a half miles from the village of Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon R. R., between that place and Kenansville, and known as "Barbacue," is offered for sale. The tract contains 360 acres, 100 of which are cleared and have been under cultivation, producing excellent Corn, Wheat, potatoes, &c. A portion of the land is also well adapted to the culture of cotton. An inexhaustible bed of Marl, a large spring of as good water as can be found in the State, and a never failing stream, running through the center of the cleared land, are among the attractions of the place.

The timbered portion of the land being nearest the Rail Road, and the entire place being easy of access to a first rate market, make it a highly desirable location for growing produce, raising stock and selling timber. Any one having the cash, can procure a bargain by applying immediately to
